Major

The Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences major is an interdisciplinary major designed for students who have specific interests that cannot be accommodated within any one of the departments in the College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences and who wish to construct a coherent program of their own. The Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences major is not intended for students whose interests are undecided; students proposing a Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences major must propose a specifically focused interdisciplinary topic or a two-field area. Such students must have a faculty advisor who is a member of the UCR Academic Senate.

The Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences major is fulfilled by a course of studies determined in consultation with an advisor and with the full approval of the chair and three members of the committee overseeing the major. The student must construct either an interdisciplinary option or a two-field option for the major as described below.

Admission Students who wish to select a Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences major must fill out a form and submit a carefully worded statement of purpose showing meaningful course interrelations. The Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences Interdisciplinary Committee considers each proposal in the context of the student’s topic and statement of purpose. Students whose proposals are being approved should petition for a change in major only after they have been informed of the committee’s approval of their interdisciplinary program. Every subsequent change in the student’s initial program must be approved by the advisor; a record of the program and of program changes is kept in the student’s files.

Humansities, Arts, and Social Sciences courses are supervised by the committee and are open to major as well as nonmajor students.

Interdisciplinary Option The interdisciplinary option is built around a central concept in humanities and social sciences. The concept might be a specific culture, country or ethnic group such as Italian civilization and culture; an age or period such as the Renaissance or the industrial revolution; a great social issue or human problem such as war, revolution, communication; or any other topic which receives significant attention from several disciplines.

Two-Field Option In special circumstances the committee sponsors a two-field option for the major designed to allow students to combine studies in two disciplines. Such majors are approved only if they cannot be accommodated within a dual major or within the Liberal Studies Program.

University Requirements

See Undergraduate Studies section.

College Requirements

See College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences, Colleges and Programs section.

Major Requirements

The major requirements for the B.A. degree in Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences are as follows: Students may choose either an interdisciplinary or a two-field option.

Interdisciplinary Option

1. Upper-division requirements (38-unit minimum)
   a) A minimum of 32 units directly related to the chosen central concept
   b) At least 6 units (but not more than 8 units) HASS 195 and/or HASS 196

2. The committee may require upper-division courses beyond those indicated above if the topic of study requires specific language, quantitative, or methodological proficiency.

Note The senior thesis or research paper is the culmination of the major and represents an interdisciplinary approach to the central concept of the major. HASS 195 (Senior Thesis) and HASS 196 (Senior Research Paper) are supervised by a faculty advisor and designed to bring into focus a substantial portion of the major.

The following are sample interdisciplinary programs:

Revolution ANTH 127, ECON 115A or ECON 115B, HIST 104, HISE 174, POSC 112, PHIL 163, PHIL 153, HASS 195 (8 units).

Renaissance AHS 161, CPLT 150J, ENGL 153, ENGL 154, HISE 131, MUS 101A, SPN 140 (E-Z), HASS 195 (8 units).

Two-field Option

1. Upper-division requirements (56 units) Twenty-eight (28) units in each of two fields, supervised by a faculty advisor

2. The committee may require upper-division courses beyond those indicated above if the topic of study requires specific language, quantitative, or methodological proficiency.
